

Up Supervision

Glass tempering machinery and furnaces

Description

A new complete graphical interface supervision system, available as an upgrade for existing systems in previous furnace versions. A large touch-screen TV monitor that allows total control of the furnace, the continuous display of the heating cycle and of all the control tools installed in the furnace. It includes a power consumption monitoring system and user manual with automatic problem-solving system, thus minimising the downtime of the machine.